Informed President Bonnelly and Foreign Minister Bonilla of Department circular telegram 938 at 10 a.m. today and immediately thereafter repeated it in their presence to full Council, Imbert and Monsenor Perez absent. Bonnelly's offhand private reaction was completely favorable. Council also seemed favorably inclined and even pleased.

Council then met privately and subsequently sent Foreign Minister to me with official reaction as follows.

1. GODR supports our position as expressed in reference telegram.

2. GODR will support us in organ of consultation of OAS tomorrow.

3. GODR wishes to express its deep concern about information in point B reference telegram that information, coupled with information GODR has received independently, convinces GODR that while formerly the Cuban problem involved only offensive missiles and IL 28s, a "new element" has now been introduced: The "incorporation" of Russian troops into the Cuban Army. Foreign Minister says radio Havana has asserted Russian troops are incorporated into Castro's militia. He and
